《Summary》

Fuuko is a lively first-year student in high school, and on the day before school starts, the two cousins, Daiya and Ichi moved into the apartment above her. Ichi is good in his studies but he is rather quiet, Daiya is extroverted and likes girls, the two of them are totally different. Daiya thought that Fuuko liked Isobe, and tried to get both of them together. Even though the misunderstanding is cleared up afterwards, Ichi acts strangely, and the relationship between Fuuko and Ichi is very awkward. The indecisive Fuuko finally confesses to Daiya, but the reply she got was, "I'm sorry, you must know... I don't understand the feeling of that 'like' of yours. And I can't answer your feelings." After being hurt deeply, Fuuko finally gets back on her feet, but Daiya is always with other girls, making her even more despondent. Later, she learns that Daiya is also very fragile inside, Fuuko then tries to act normal towards Daiya again and gives him a smile...

Author's Comments:

At the time when I was first published serially, the price of medicine became very expensive. Even so, I was not very sick. But I made up my mind to see the doctor if my condition was poor. I don't want to trouble you all with the reason for my ill health, including readers and editors. But, before the deadline, my body seems to be a paradise for bacteria. Today also, I am Nanaji, who fights against the evil you can't see with the items to definitely kill them in my hand.

Nanaji Nagamu-sensei.

② Hmm, first, I would like to apologize. In volume four, I mentioned that many readers asked me to send some drawings and I couldn't respond to everyone.

Later, I received lots of letters asking for drawings. I didn't mean it that way! (cries)

It will be unfair if I couldn't reply to everyone. What I meant was that I can't send drawings.

Please forgive me, because of my bad language skills people misunderstood. I'm really sorry! It's hard to explain to all readers who asked for drawings (there were really a lot of incoming letters.) So please allow me to apologize here.

Even for gal moms, many of them wear sneakers or shoes with low heels. I think the extreme characters I drew this time is the reason why I angered the gal moms. Every time I'm making characters, I tend to go overboard unconsciously, and I don't have the ability to make subtle characters. I am sorry that I caused everyone unpleasantness every time because of my insufficient abilities. Anyways, I would like everyone to know that I have no prejudices whatsoever regarding this matter.

SFX <HOHOHOHO>

⑤ The content of the second half of volume five, I asked my mangaka friend, Akagi Satoko-chan to help me. My first impression of her was "She has mixed blood"?

She has big round eyes and fair skin. She's really cute, but doesn't realize it, and that makes her even more adorable. Since she speaks and moves slowly, she seems docile at first glance, but she is actually very manly!! (laugh) Very knowledgeable, and she knows English. I really admire her. But, I sometimes don't understand her (laugh). Last time, when we were discussing what to eat for lunch:

Na: You said before that you wanted to eat the okowa onigiri from Oven Eleven. Which is better between that and Oss Burger?

Aka: Oss is better. I really like bread.

Na. Didn't you say you liked bread?

Seriously. She forgets something every time and goes home to get it. She's really an interesting person. Thanks to her, I've been enjoying the time even before a deadline. Even when I can't concentrate, she would put on the tone earnestly for me. She even baby sits my kid and my sister's. Really, thank you very much for everything!
